relaxed at the cottage

We never tire of cottage-style kitchens with their glossy-white molding, beadboard and cabinetry—a style that the Cottage Company in Harbor Springs does particularly perfectly. Cottage Company was the creative force behind this rendition that feels so in charge of its mission that folks pulling up a barstool can't help but take the Relax sign seriously. The nautical pendant lights and navy walls set a shore-side feel that is echoed in the view of Walloon Lake out the window. 🏡

what we love

The brass and white-enamel La Cornue stove with a matching brass pot filler makes our heart ache with joy.
